The Revival of the Lancero Size

Since the early 1980s, the Cohiba Lanceros have been regarded as a benchmark for the Laguito No. 1 size. After several years of fading from the scene, this elegant vitola is now having a revival. It is considered a size for the connoisseur, and with good reason.

Nicaragua, Tobaccos: 100% Nicaragua

Zedrig, ledrig, satte Röstaromen und zart pfeffrig präsentiert sich die Lancero bei optimalem Zugwiderstand als vollmundige, kräftige Zigarre. Dazu kommt ein zart süßlicher Geschmack und eine angenehme Schärfe im cremigen Rauch. Alles zusammen vermittelt volle Harmonie und ausgeprägten Charakter.

With cedary, leathery and full aromas of roasting, this delicately peppery lancero turns out to be a full-bodied and strong cigar with an optimal draw resistance. A delicately sweetish taste and a pleasant sharpness accompany its creamy smoke. Altogether, it provides a full harmony and a pronounced character.

STRIKING BACK:
